FACULTY.

FRANCIS PRESTON VENABLE, PH.D., D.SC., LL.D., PRESIDENT.

JAMES CAMERON MACRAE, LL.D., Dean and Professor of Common and Statute Law and Equity.

LUCIUS POLK MCGEHEE, A.B., Professor of Law and Equity.

KEMP PLUMMER BATTLE, LL.D., Professor of Constitutional History and International Law.

CHARLES LEE RAPER, PH.D., Associate Professor of Economics and of History.

CHARLES STAPLES MANGUM, A.B., M.D., Lecturer on Medical Jurisprudence.

GENERAL PLAN AND METHODS OF INSTRUCTION.

The work of the Law Department extends over two years, and embraces courses in all the ordinary legal subjects, in constitutional history, economics, and medical jurisprudence.

The first year of technical legal study is devoted to a treatment of the law of persons, property, torts, contracts, and crimes. The second year embraces a study of equity, procedure, and evidence, public and private corporations, constitutional and international law, administration, insurance, bankruptcy, and admiralty.

Instruction is given by text-books, lectures, and the study of selected and leading cases. From time to time during the term eminent lawyers and judges will deliver lectures.

ELEMENTARY AND BUSINESS LAW.

A course is also offered giving an outline of the field of law and studying more in detail the principles and forms applicable to business and commercial life. This course affords a preliminary study for those intending to pursue the regular legal course. It is elective for Juniors and Seniors in the College.

THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LAWS.

Two years of residence are required of all students who desire to offer themselves as candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws, LL.B.

This degree is conferred on those who have passed approved examinations on the subjects indicated in the curriculum below, and who have, in addition, submitted approved theses on subjects satisfactory to the Dean of the Department. Applicants for this degree must have completed as a prerequisite, an academic course equivalent to that of the Freshman and Sophomore years in the College.

CURRICULUM.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION.

Professor MCGEHEE.

1. Elementary Course in first principles and plain rules of business, contract, and property law. Robinson's Elementary Law; Spencer's Commercial Law. Both terms, three hours.
2. Persons, Personal Property, and Contracts. A course, requiring five hours of class work a week for a term, is devoted to these subjects. After some introductory lectures on the nature of law and on the classification of its different branches, the rights of persons is taken up. The law of husband and wife, parent and child, guardian and ward, and master and servant, and the law regulating infants and others non compotes mentis is treated. An outline of the law of personal property, including its divisions and species and the mode of acquiring title thereto, follows. This is succeeded by a study of the general principles of the law of contract. The texts used are Blackstone's Commentaries (portions), Clark on Contracts, and another work to be announced. Fall term, five hours.
3. Real Property. The basis of instruction for this course is Goodwin on Real Property and Blackstone's Commentaries. Fall term, five hours.
4. Agency, Sales, Negotiable Instruments, and Partnership. After completing course 2 the study of the more important specific contracts is pursued. Mechem on Agency; Browne or Burdick on Sales; the Negotiable Instrument Law, with Bigelow on Bills and Notes; and Mechem on Partnership are used. Spring term, five hours.
5. Criminal Law, Torts, and Bailments. After completing course 3, the above topics are taken up. May on Criminal Law, Bigelow on Torts, and Goddard's Outlines of the Law of Bailment and Carriers form the texts studied. Spring term, five hours.

Professor MACRAE.

7. First Greenleaf on Evidence; Best on Evidence (Third Ewell); the Code chapter on Evidence. Bispham's Equity; Equity Pleading and Practice. Code of Civil Procedure; Code Practice. Fall term, five hours.
8. Dillon on Municipal Corporations. Richards on Insurance. Hughes on Admiralty. The Law of Bankruptcy. Fall term, five hours.
9. Clark on Corporations; the North Carolina Corporation Law and Cases. Schouler on Executors and Administrators; Code chapters on Executors, Widows, Wills, and Testaments; Descent and Distribution. The Law of Wills. The Constitutions of North Carolina and of the United States. The Code. Spring term, five hours.
10. Cooley on Constitutional Limitations. Historical Jurisprudence. International Law. Lectures. Theses. Spring term, five hours.

Professor BATTLE.

Associate Professor RAPER.

11. Economics. (Economics 1.) A general study of the production and consumption of wealth; a special study of land, labor, capital, and organization as factors in the production of wealth; lectures and readings. Marshall's Principles of Economics. Both terms, two hours.
12. Economics. (Economics 2.) Public Finance: a general study of the principles of expenditures and revenues of the State, and of the relation of the State to industries; a special study of taxation and the tariff; lectures and readings; Adams' Science of Finance; Both terms, two hours.

Professor MANGUM.

13. Medical Jurisprudence. Both terms, one hour.

CERTIFICATES.

A certificate is granted to students who pass with credit thorough written examinations on all subjects embraced in courses 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, and 9. Those who receive this certificate are considered prepared to appear before the Supreme Court for examination.

MOOT COURT.

The Moot Court is an important factor in legal educational methods; it familiarizes the student with the practical side of law. It is the purpose of the University Court to acquaint the student with the legal details so necessary to be acquired, yet so difficult of access. Regular sessions are held every Saturday evening, and every student in the Law Department has frequent opportunities for practice. The work is thorough and is carried on from the inception of the suit to the final judgment in the Appellate Court.

Court of Appeals.

Judge,                      PROFESSOR MACRAE.

Superior Court.

Judge,                      NEWMAN ALEXANDER TOWNSEND.
Solicitor,                 FRANCIS SYLVESTER HASSELL.
Clerk,                      THOMAS WILLIAM SIMMONS.
Sheriff,                    JOHN ARCHIBALD PARKER.

EXPENSES PER TERM.

Tuition fee.....	$35.00
Fee for matriculation, etc.....	12.50
Tuition fee for Elementary Course.....	5.00

Where full tuition, $35.00, is paid, there is no extra charge for the Elementary Course.

Good board is furnished at Commons Hall for $8 per month. The rent of unfurnished rooms in the dormitories ranges from seventy-five cents to $2.75 per month, for each occupant. For each room a charge of $2.00 per month is made for electric light and for heating.

ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION.

Candidates for admission into the Law School should present themselves on the same days and at the same hours with candidates for admission into the College, either in September or in January. Candidates for admission and students already members of the school are expected to register according to the regulations on page 76. The session of the Law Department is of the same length as the College year. The members of the Law Department enjoy all the privileges extended to other students in the University.

THE SUMMER LAW SCHOOL.

JUNE, JULY, AUGUST, 1906.

The Summer Law School is maintained for the purpose of providing:—

- 1st. A course for those who wish to begin the study of law, Course 2.
- 2nd. A thorough review of the course prescribed by the Supreme Court for applicants for license at the September Term.
- 3rd. An opportunity for members of the bar who desire to review any branch of the Law.

SESSION.

The Summer Term begins June 13 and ends the last Friday in August. These dates are adapted to the change in the time for the fall term of the Supreme Court.

Judge MacRae, assisted by a corps of eminent law lecturers to be announced hereafter, will conduct the School.

LECTURES AND RECITATIONS.

Lectures and recitations are held daily for each class continuing one hour and a half. Special lectures will also be delivered by prominent lawyers during the term.

The work is conducted by means of text-books, lectures, leading cases, quizzes, and the Moot Court. There are two classes, as follows:

2. Ewell's Essentials of the Law, which includes Domestic Relations, Real Property Law, Personal Property Law, Criminal Law, and the Law of Contracts and Torts. The other text-books used will be Manning's Commentaries on 1st Blackstone; 2nd Blackstone and Williams on Real Property; 3rd Blackstone and Code Pleading; 4th Blackstone and Criminal Law; Clark on Contracts; Bigelow on Torts; Creasy's English Constitution.

3. 1st Greenleaf on Evidence, with the Revisal Chapter on Evidence. Bispham's Equity. Clark on Corporations. Schouler on Executors, with the Revisal Chapters on Widows, Wills, and Testaments. First Volume of the North Carolina Revisal of 1905, with Clark's Code of Civil Procedure. The Constitutions of the United States and of North Carolina. Sharswood's Legal Ethics. 3rd Blackstone and Code Pleading. Cooley's Principles of Constitutional Law.

EXAMINATIONS.

No entrance examination is required; but each student must satisfy the Faculty that he has sufficient general training to enable him to take the course with profit to himself. Examinations are required as each subject is completed, and at the end of the term certificates are issued to those who have passed with credit all the examinations.

FEES AND EXPENSES.

The tuition for course 2 is $30; for course 3, $30; for both, $50. Any student who has attended the regular session for two terms and paid his fees in cash may take the full summer course for $30.

Any licensed attorney desiring to review the course will be permitted to do so for $39. The registration fee is $3. There are no scholarships in this department. Board in the village with room will cost from $10 to $20 per month; without room, from $8 to $15.

For further information address, President F. P. Venable, or Hon. Jas. C. MacRae, Dean, University Law Department, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Professor McGehee will not be present at the Summer Law School in 1906. Dr. Thomas Ruffin and Mr. J. Crawford Biggs, both former Professors of Law at the University, will lecture in course.

Dr. K. P. Battle, Ex-Chief-Justice James E. Shepherd, Mr. F. H. Busbee, and other distinguished judges and lawyers are expected to deliver occasional lectures during the term.
